

Audit Planning

Study online at https://quizlet.com/\_98kdkd

-
- |                                          |                                                      |
|------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------|
| 1. To identify areas of high risk | What is the first step in risk-based audit planning? |
|------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------|
-
- |                                                            |                                                       |
|------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------|
| 2. The utilization of resources for high-risk areas | What is a major benefit of risk-based audit planning? |
|------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------|
-
- |                                                                                     |                                                         |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------|
| 3. To evaluate the threats and vulnerabilities applicable to the data center | What is the first step to conduct a data center review? |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------|
-