1. Certifying Authority

   Which authority manages the life cycle of digital certificates?

2. • To verify and validate the information provided by the applicant. • To verify that applicant is the possession of the private key and that matches the public key requested for a certificate. This known as proof of possession (POP). • To distribute physical tokens containing private keys • To generate shared secret keys during initialization and certificate pick up phase of registration

   What are the functions of an Registration Authority?

3. Certification Practice Statement

   What is the name of the procedural document that details how to deal with compromised private keys?